

Small Village with Big Dreams Seeks Librarian

Cheney Library in Hoosick Falls, New York, is seeking a qualified, energetic Director to lead us into an expanding realm, which balances traditional librarian skills with ever increasing cyber skills. We want this person to make a difference in our community.

Located in downtown Hoosick Falls, Cheney Library is a member of the Upper Hudson Library System, a consortium of 28 libraries in Albany and Rensselaer counties. Our historic building is surrounded by beautiful gardens and community support. We also have an active volunteer base. The building itself presently has over 16,000 books, 400 audio and visual materials, 25 periodicals, and serves 2,000 patrons.

The Director's duties include, but are not limited to, Operational tasks (circulation of books, book collection and management, patron services), Administrative Tasks (personnel, building and equipment management, fund raising and other budgetary matters), and Professional Development (keeping informed of new services and programs, and attending meetings, workshops, and seminars).

A Bachelor's Degree is required for this position. Salary is somewhat flexible, but remember we are a small library. Applicants should include salary requirements in the cover letter. All qualified individuals are encouraged to send a resume to Lynne Teker, 21939 NY 22, Hoosick Falls, NY 12090.
